- 2008 Participants will engage in workshops in public speaking, teamwork and group facilitation, character education, decision making and other related topics.
- A unique aspect of the program is that youth of the State 4-H Council organize and conduct all the workshops providing a Youth teaching Youth format.
- Service is a major part of JLR. This year we will support the "Corinne T. Smith Animal Shelter". The Shelter serves Brown County and the surrounding rural communities with low-cost spaying and neutering, animal cruelty prevention programs, and humane education programs. See the attached Wish List to contribute, either individually or as a county.
